

Press accreditation for SUPERMARKET 2017

SUPERMARKET – Stockholm Independent Art Fair is fast approaching and on the 22nd of March we will open the doors to the twelfth edition of Scandinavia’s most international art fair. Presenting 74 artist-run initiatives from 45 cities around the world, SUPERMARKET launches four days of creative bustle. Would you like to cover this year’s edition of SUPERMARKET as a member of the press? Apply for accreditation today.

SUPERMARKET – Stockholm Independent Art Fair has become a prominent arena for contemporary art with strong connections to the international art world. With focus set on the artist-run scene, each edition of SUPERMARKET introduces the latest, most exciting works of contemporary art to its spectrum of visitors, from general public and art professionals to journalists from all around the world.

This year over 200 artists will contribute to an extensive programme of exhibitions, performances, moderated discussions and seminars. The press accreditation gives you full access to our exhibition venue and additional features of the programme – plus the opportunity to book interviews with our exhibitors. The press office will gladly assist you with booking interviews and creating press kits.

SEE THE NEXT PAGE FOR THE LIST OF EXHIBITORS!

The press office handles all media inquiries and press accreditation. Press accreditation is subject to approval and proof of intent.

Apply for press accreditation by sending an email to accred@supermarketartfair.com

Required information includes first and last name, work title, workplace and a referee.
